"treat the infection: your physician can prescribe an appropriate antibiotic to treat the underlying infection for most patients with bipolar disorder, more of their lives are spent in depressed mood than in periods of elevation, even for those with bipolar I disorder

apply the darkest shade of eyeshadow to the crease of the eyelid, the inside corner of the eye, and up and away from the outer corner of the eye.