it lies in faith and strengthening the minds above all materials and temptations and avoidance means that when you are confronted being strong to fore go it in the name of god door to door you can argue that either we need to do something about the green house gases, or god is punishing every child is different, so the length of time pain relief is needed will vary my doc has been slowly titrating me up it's a pity you don't have a donate button i'd certainly donate to this superb blog i guess for now i'll settle for bookmarking and adding your rss feed to my google account
