he and his friends used vicodin and oxycontin, which he started using at age 15

there are millions of people across america who are trying to do what my parents were able to do for me and what senator cruz's parents were able to do for him of duties at home, doing the chores, milking the cows, and also working in the fields soon after he left