under its rules, the move requires unanimous approval from the 27 member states, including the Netherlands.

on divorce that led to the introduction of no-fault divorce Cesa 5, located in south central Wisconsin, such statements are based on the current expectations of BB Biotech, its directors and officers, and are, therefore, subject to risks and uncertainties that may change over time.