I am on day 12 and have the worst sore throat and sinus drainage. Breastfeeding mothers or those planning to breastfeed their babies are also advised to discontinue rosvastatin under the supervision of their physicians. Ignoring the press will only allow them to give the police version of the events, and it will make it more difficult later on to get them to print your version.