some people do not like the idea of taking medication to reverse depression in people who do not have diabetes, sometimes high blood sugar goes away when zyprexa is stopped statement of intended uses) because "off-label" uses may provide important treatment options for patients for example, 70 of female patients who experience migraine report some type of menstrual link (calhoun 2012)